THINGS SEEN AND HEARD

Richmond.—Adjutant-General W. W. Sale and Colonel Joseph LeMasurier, assistant Adjutant-General, are attending the annual convention of the National Guard Association of the United States in Philadelphia.

* * *

Saluda.—Garnett Taylor, 19-year-old son of Douglas Taylor, died at his home, near Botyin, Va., as the result of being hurt by a bull on the farm of Captain McDonald Evans, Middlesex county.

* * *

Lynchburg. — William L. Clarkson, formerly of New Haven, Conn., died at Elks' National Home, being the twelfth victim of the poisoned cider trouble that occurred here November 10th.

* * *

Lynchburg. — Charles Brice, negro, pleaded guilty in the Corporation Court here to an indictment charging him with holding up and robbing M. R. Petzold, druggist, of $200 in the latter's store, October 2, and Judge F. P. Christian sentenced him to 12 years in prison.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Captain Roald Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, will make an address here January 16 at the Randolph-Macon Woman's College, under the auspices of the Lynchburg Woman's Club. "The Discovery of the South Pole" will be the subject for the lecture.

* * *

Fredericksburg. — The Redding brothers, of King George county, captured a large gray fox last week near Mathias Point, after an exciting chase of several hours in which a large number of hounds took part. Many sportsmen, who followed the pack, were present at the killing.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—William B. Foster, of Spotsylvania county, has been appointed by the Board of Supervisors of that county, as sealer of weights and measures to succeed the late Geo. B. Jones. Mr. Foster has qualified as such. Mr. Foster has served as deputy sheriff and justice of the peace of his county.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Three true bills were returned by the grand jury in the Corporation Court here, as follows: Rogor Thornhill, negro, two charges of grand larceny, and Charles Brice, negro, highway robbery. Brice is charged with holding up M. R. Petzold, a druggist, in his store and robbing him of $214.59.

* * *

Fredericksburg.—Judge R. H. L. Chichester, of Stafford Circuit Court, has appointed land assessors for Stafford County as follows: Hartwood District, C. L. Kennedy, with Harry Rollins as his assistant in Falmouth District; Aquia District, Clinton Powers. Mr. Powers' assistant has not yet been named.

* * *

Richmond.—Customs receipts for the port of Richmond for the 11 months ended with November amounted to $104,981.51 more than the total receipts for 1922, W. Gay Smith, collector for Richmond, announced. Duties paid to the local customs office in 1923 aggregated $1,546,634.56. For the first eleven months in this year the receipts were $1,451,730.56.

* * *

Bristol.—Bristol business men who serve agencies are paid out more than $1,000 for advertising privileges in motion pictures taken of interesting places in the city are now wondering what became of the men who made the pictures. They are also anxious to know when the finished films are to be delivered here in accordance with the contract.

* * *

Norton.—After borrowing a pocket knife from another passenger on the train, Mrs. Robert Wolfe, of Scott county, attempted suicide by drawing the blade across her throat, but was prevented from doing herself serious injury by the interference of the lender of the knife. The attempted suicide occurred on the Louisville and Nashville road, near Gibson Station in Lee county. The woman asked for the knife from Claude F. Beverly, former Federal dry officer, on pretense of paring an apple. Immediately upon receiving it she began slashing at her throat. No reason was assigned for her act.

* * *

Harrisonburg. — Rockingham is assured of a county fair in 1925. The board of directors met and re-elected W. M. Menefee, president and general manager, and authorized him to go forward at once with plans for next year's exhibition. The fair this year was the first one ever to return a profit. Encouraged by this success, together with the interest of the public in purchasing sufficient preferred stock to meet the indebtedness on the grounds, the directors say they will leave nothing undone to make the 1925 fair the best in history.

* * *

Fredericksburg—A captured German cannon, one of the prizes brought home from France by the American Expeditionary Forces as the tangible fruits of the victory of the allied armies over those of Germany and Austria in the World War, arrived here to become a part of the memorial to the soldiers in the World War from Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania county.

* * *

Winchester.—Improvements in some about $99,000 were approved at the semi-annual meeting of the general board of Winchester Memorial Hospital. The changes will consist of enlargements at the Nurses' Home in order to house more nurses, and erection of one large bastling plant, to take the place of five separate plants now used for the hospital, superintendent's house and nurses' home.

* * *

Winchester.—Floyd Fletcher was indicted by the grand jury for a misdemeanor, charged with possessing three gallons of moonshine liquor, and he was about to be given thirty days in jail and $50 fine when he told where he had hidden a still. The court at once changed the indictment to one of felony, sentencing Fletcher to six months on the State roads and $50 fine and costs.

* * *

Danville.—The Danville Kiwanis Club has undertaken to sponsor the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals in Danville this year. Organization for the campaign was perfected by James T. Catlin, president of the club, and the sale will start immediately. More than $1,000 is expected to be raised here, 2 per cent. of the proceeds to be devoted to the Virginia Anti-Tuberculosis Association.

* * *

Staunton.—Commonwealth's Attorney Hugh R. Kerr announced that he would seek the indictment at the hands of the next grand jury in Augusta Circuit Court here of Paul Marshall, negro merchant, who was acquitted in Magistrate's court on a charge of violating the prohibition law, in spite of the fact he admitted manufacturing and possessing twenty-four gallons of wine.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Children under 15 years must be off the streets by 7 o'clock, unless accompanied by, or having written permission from their parents. In summer months, the time is extended until 9 o'clock. Enactment of the curfew law was one of the pre-election pledges of Mayor Shaffy L. Dexter, who took office last September. The police are to enforce the law, patrolling the streets after the curfew bell sounds.

* * *

Danville.—Notice was received here from the government arsenal at Raritan, N. J., saying that the Danville war trophies are ready for shipment, and that only the necessary instructions and covering charges remain to be sent. The pieces include one 170 millimeter minenwerfer, which is about three times as large as a French "75," and two German maxim guns. It will cost the city $116 to secure the trophies which are to be placed on the Memorial Mansion grounds.

* * *

Bristol.—Ben Burchfield, charged with the murder of five persons here on November 26, 1922, will die in the electric chair January 16, 1925, unless future steps to save his life are successful. The Tennessee Supreme Court in Nashville has affirmed the decision of the Sullivan County Court in which Burchfield was found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to die in the electric chair. The court also fixed the date of electrocution.

* * *

Clarksville. — Clarksville's toll bridge, for seventeen years a source of revenue, is no more. In accordance with an agreement with the State Highway Commission the bridge, built by Clarksville people to do away with an old dangerous hand ferry, has been made a gift to the State, and is now a part of the State highway system. The act of the townspeople in making the donation cuts off a revenue amounting to approximately $38,000 to Clarksville.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Officers here are still searching in remote sections of the county for thieves who removed more than $2,000 worth of merchandise from the department store at Long early Sunday morning. The thieves are believed to have added to their loot, consisting of men's and women's wearing apparel. In the mountains between here and Luray, Luray officers said the robbery was the biggest and most daring ever staged in that town. The thieves boldly backed a truck up to the Main Street entrance of the store, smashed the plate-glass window and carried out the goods, leaving no clue. The apparel stolen had just been received Saturday in a shipment.

* * *

Salem.—Rev. Charles L. Corbitt, for eighteen years superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage here, retired from that office December 1, and is succeeded by Rev. P. H. Chelf. Mr. Chelf was field secretary of the institution for fourteen years. During the World War, he was overseas on relief mission. A change in the medical staff also has been made. Dr. W. M. Smiley has resigned and has been succeeded by Dr. Churchill Robertson, son of Rev. P. B. Robertson, of the Baptist Church. Dr. Robertson is a brother to Mrs. Sidney Peters, of Richmond.

THE RAISING OF LAZARUS

LESSON TEXT—John 11:1-45.

GOLDEN TEXT—"I am the resurrection, and the life."—John 11:25.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Comforts a Family in Trouble.

JUNIOR TOPIC — Lazarus Raised From the Dead.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Christ's Power Over Death.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC —Christ, the Resurrection and the Life.

I. The Revelation of Christ's Love (vv. 1-16).

The Bethany family held a peculiar place in the affections of Jesus. When the doors of other homes were closed against Him, the door of this house hung wide open to receive Him.

1. Lazarus Sick (vv. 1, 2). Even those who are in close fellowship with the Lord are not immune from sickness.

2. Martha and Mary Send for Jesus (v. 3).

Because they had come to know Jesus more than a mere man they instinctively turned to Him when this shadow fell across their home. Those who receive Jesus into their homes, when all are well and happy, can be sure of His love and sympathy when sickness and death overtake them.

3. Jesus' Strange Delay (vv. 4-19). Martha and Mary sent for Jesus because He loved Lazarus. Now, Jesus "abode in the same place" because He "loved Lazarus and his sisters." More human sympathy would have moved Him to hasten to the home of trouble, but Divine love, which rests upon perfect knowledge, caused Him to tarry.

4. Jesus Meets Martha and Mary (vv. 20-37).

Martha and Mary knew the peril to which He would be exposed and therefore did not requestalist He come, but merely gave Him notice. They were willing that His coming should be left to Him.

(1) Martha Met Jesus (vv. 20-27). As He was nearing the village, Martha, who with her sister had passed through the awful ordeal of the sickness and death of a dear brother, met Him with a complaint for His delay. Because of His love He ignored her complaint and taught her concerning the resurrection and life. Martha, like many today, had a vague belief that God would raise Lazarus some time in the remote future. To her came the compelling declaration, "I am the resurrection, and the life." The great truth to be apprehended is that here and now we are united to the living Christ, the source of life, and that this is the pledge of bodily resurrection and eternal reunion.

(2) Mary Met Jesus (vv. 28-35). Mary came with the same words, but with a different voice and attitude. She fell down at His feet. She had been sitting at his feet in the days of prosperity. Therefore she knew where to go when sorrows cast their shadows across her path. Her words were answered by His tears. "Jesus wept."

II. The Resurrection of Lazarus (vv. 38-44).

The great sympathy now expresses itself in supernatural power. Sympathy would be valueless without its connection with divine power. In this stupendous miracle we see an illustration of the quickening into life of those dead in trespasses and sin.

Observe:

1. He Was Dead. This is a type of the sinner, dead in trespasses and sins, even morally corrupt (Eph. 2:1).

2. Jesus Calls Him He Hollied away. This is the part the human must play.

3. In Unbelief Martha Protests Against Jesus' Being Bound Beforehand. She insists that Lazarus had already undergone corruption.

4. Christ's Intimacy and Fellowship With the Father as Revealed in His Prayer.

5. His Manner of Dealing With Lazarus. It was by a call. He is calling men and women today by His Spirit, His Word and His providences.

6. The Response of Lazarus Shows That His Call Was With Authority and Power. With the call goes the power to hear and obey, even though one be dead in trespasses and sin and therefore helpless.

7. The People Are Commanded to Remove the Grave-Clothes and Set Him Free. They could not make Lazarus alive, but they could remove the grave-clothes which bound the man whom Christ made alive.

III. Effect of This Miracle (vv. 45-47).

This mighty work caused division of sentiment. Some believed on Jesus and some went to the Pharisees with the news.
